

Call for expressions of interest in hosting 20th ERSCP Conference 2021

The ERSCP conference (European Roundtable of Sustainable Consumption and Production) is an important part of the society's service to the SCP community. After the successful 18th ERSCP 2017 in Skiathos, Greece, and the forthcoming 19th ERSCP in Barcelona (14-19 October 2019) having attracted more than 300 abstracts, we invite Expressions of Interest to host our next conference which is due to take place in Autumn 2021. Proposals from countries where the ERSCP has not yet taken place are particularly encouraged.

Proposals (2 pages maximum) can be submitted to info@erscp.eu and should include:

- an outline of the prospective local organising committee and its institutional background
- main persons in charge of content and organisation
- the proposed timing and location of the conference
- an indication of the premises to be used (e.g. University facilities or otherwise)
- proposed main conference topic and title, sub-themes, supplemented by a short explanation of the reasons of the proposed topic and its linkages with subthemes
- indicative costs e.g. for travelling from main airport, hotel and registration fee.

The local organising committee will be supported by an experienced International Advisory Board. The deadline for proposals is on June 22, 2019, 23.00 hr CET. After the deadline the board of the ERSCP Society will evaluate the proposals received.

The successful proposal will be announced at the ERSCP 2019, which is held 14-19 October in Barcelona with the theme "Circular Europe for Sustainability: Design, Production and Consumption", see: <http://erscp2019.eu/>
